subject: Product OBSOLESCENCE, 8723

date: 9/11/2007

Molex is announcing that we will obsolete engineering series 8723 and offering our high temperature 70567 series as a drop in replacement. Molex is consolidating the product offering in an effort to meet lead-free solder profiles going forward.

There may be some minor difference in the housing shape however the 70567 series meets all form, fit and function requirements. A cross-reference has been provided for your convenience.

The last date to order parts will be October 30, 2007 with all product shipping by Dec 31. Customer request dates (CRD) passed Dec 31 will be pulled in automatically.

If you have any questions or require further information, please contact me at extension 4850 or via email at erik.linell@molex.com

Thank you,

Erik Linell
